

Amherst Biennial

October 2 – December 5, 2010

Application for Participation

The Amherst Public Arts Commission (APAC) is pleased to announce the first Amherst Biennial this Fall (Oct/Nov 2010) at the Nacul Center, Amherst Town Hall and possibly additional satellite sites (empty storefronts and buildings) in town. We are looking for the best art created in Western Massachusetts during the last 2 years. Curators for this exhibit will be Terry Rooney, Chair of the Amherst Public Arts Commission; Tony Maroulis, former co-director, wunderarts gallery; and Susan Loring-Wells, former executive director of the Fiber Art Center.

Send 3 digital images (2 each for 3D work), a resume and this application. CD must be readable on both a Mac and PC formats. Images must be jpegs at 72 DPI with the largest dimension set at no more than 800 pixels. Please label CD with your name email address and phone number. Deadline for all submissions is June 15, 2010. Applicants will be notified by July 15, 2010. We are looking for original artwork in all media welcome. A catalogue of the Amherst Biennial artists and their artwork is planned.

Mail CD's, entry fee (check payable to: Amherst Public Arts Commission for $25), and support materials to: The Amherst Public Arts Commission, c/o Jones Library, 43 Amity St., Amherst, MA 01002. APAC cannot return materials to the artists.
